Beloved brethern, it has been many years since we have gathered together such as this. And we are so thankful for the opportunity once again to come forth and share with you in this way. It has been many lives since we last talked. And it has been many, many ways of expression to reach this point once again. For the need is to come forth and manifest in this manner. For the purpose that you have joined together once again as a group, as an identity, as one, in mass, is of great importance to humanity as a whole, as well as to each individual here in this room and his evolution of the spirit within. The last time we communicated with you was some 2,000 years ago in which at that time you were working to bring to an understanding to mankind the harmony of the divine grace within, a way of bringing balance and truth to the spiritual will.

And now you have come together yet again for another goal to be accomplished. That goal this time is much different than the goal set for you 2,000 years ago. This goal deals mainly in the physical realms of man helping him to find a state of balance and a state of understanding, an understanding of how to take care of that which he has and to use it properly. For until the time comes that man understands and cares for the physical vehicle properly he truly cannot become one with the spiritual identity and manifest it properly the way it should be.

So the next step in the development of this group and its purpose is to help man now become more aware of his physical body, of his physical being, and that care must be taken in order to perfect it. 2,000 years ago we gave you a command to go forth and teach the spirit of God, the will of God and the power of God. And you did that and you did that well. It helped to upraise the evolution of man's awareness and his spiritual presence within was illumined 10-fold. But now man's growth has ebbed spiritually at this point. He has grown spiritually in his evolutionary process over these last 2,000 years and reached this point of today. But now he does not perfect the physical body and bring it into balance. The spiritual body can grow only slowly in his evolutionary process from this point. So we reach out through you, in hopes to bring the knowledge together that will go forth to mankind to help set up the evolutionary process of the physical body of mankind on an individual and collective scale. So that through that stepping up of the evolution of the physical body man will rise up again in his awareness of his spiritual identity and begin to search for that which he is, that God-self within.

Let me here share a story with you. One that might give you some insight into that which you are trying to do. There was a lioness who was large with cub. She was out hunting one day and came across some sheep. And as she was going after the sheep and bounced upon one, she died. In her death she gave birth to a cub. The sheep took the cub on as their own and raised it and the cub lion took on the identity that it too was a sheep. It began to eat the grass as the sheep do and to bleep like the sheep do rather than to roam the fields like a lion. Finally, it matured into a full grown lion, thinking it was a sheep and it was happy in that way. But one day another lion came across this field and saw the sheep and this lion together eating and was amazed. So it went up trying to get to the lion to say, "Look you're a lion- what are you doing here? This is not your place!" But because it had been taught by the sheep to fear, it ran away every time he came close. So finally he was waiting one night until the lion was asleep and he walked up to it, woke the lion up, and said, "Come, follow me, I must show you something." Out of fear he followed, not knowing for sure what was to happen to him. The lion who knew his identity took him to a pool of water and said, "Look at my reflection and look at yours and know who you really are, a lion not a sheep." This is what you are trying to do. You will try to take mankind by the hand. Man knows only the physical realm and thinks of himself only as a physical being, and you are trying to show him the reflection of the spirit within. You are trying to show him the perfection of God within. To show him that that is his true identity and that he is not that physical man, that physical being, but the God within. This is what you have attempted to do ever since you came to the physical planes of this planet. Even this time, through the foundation working with the physical body, trying to help perfect it and heal it. This is what you are attempting to do with your goals, with this foundation, is to help mankind find the true reflection of the God within. This is what pattern we have set forth for you here. This is what we desire for you to do. To bring forth the ideas of all of man for we have reached out to do this but have failed. And bring it under one roof, work together in harmony to strive to help mankind understand and care for his physical being. There are yet many souls who wish to communicate with you to share with you their motives and their plans for this foundation. Mine is to work through you in the divine light that is and that has always been. My light is ever with you, my love is ever with you, and remember whenever two or more are gathered in my name, there am I also.

I strive, as I strove so many years ago, to work through you to help others to upgrade man's evolution and to help him become aware of that divine nature within. There will be those who will hear your words and walk away in disbelief and there will be those who hear your words and will join you gladly in your motive of helping man. Reach out to all and give to all that which you can. To those who respond continue to give, continue to help, for it is those in humanity that respond to this call that will go out and truly upgrade the evolution. It was from twelve that Christianity was formed and there is still a base of truth within the sense of Christianity if one looks deep within it. From you there will be a great channel of healing formed on the physical levels. There will be distorted in time and much of the truth will be lost in time. In all, the truth shall remain. Those that search for it will find it. So lay down within the principles that you set forth, the truth, and that truth will continue to be at the basis of all that is within this foundation for evermore. It takes but a few hundred odd men and women to go forth and change the world. But it takes those first steps by those men and women upon that path of change to bring the change about. This is what is happening to you today. You are beginning to take those first few steps along that path of change. Many of you will fall by the wayside because the battles will be many and hard, but some of you will persevere and see your way through to victory. It will be through that victory that mankind will be victorious as well.

I leave you now with my love and my light. With each one of you I touch within the heart and mind of each I leave my word. Seek well for the word and that word shall set you free. Peace my brethern - I leave you now and yet another shall come.

Dearly Beloved, It is good to be gathered here again with you. It has been only a few years since I have worked with some of you here in this room. Others it has been a long time since I have talked to you. I have worked with many of you upon the inner planes several times in the past few weeks, bringing you to this point of awareness and growth and a pattern of growth within to perfect it for the growth outwardly later on it must manifest. I am Count de St. Germaine. And I come to you at this time to help manifest the flame of wisdom and of growth that must manifest within each of you in order for the foundation to succeed properly. I am the manifestation of the 7th flame and in that 7th flame, the flame of the Aquarian Age. I come forth manifesting new organizations such as this to bring about the change of humanity that must manifest if man is to survive and grow as it is. I come to you at this time wishing you success in bringing forth the light of success with me and to you. I offer it to each of you. Receive it willingly then you shall succeed upon the path you have chosen to be upon. Know that we all are with you and wish only the best for you.

Strive every day to live and be full of the spirit of God and manifesting it in truth and harmony with the fellow man around you. Do not look down the road years ahead and say this is where we have got to be, but rather look to today and say this is what we must do today. Succeed in each day and the tomorrows will take care of themselves. My brethern, my light is with you and I wish to set forth some goals now that we have set down for you.

This foundation is one that has been hoping to be developed for many a year. It has been in the minds of several here. It has been in the hearts of all. I come to you at this time to set down some principles. You must strive to bring about several of the medical doctors and organizations within the country to an awareness that the physical laws of man are natural laws and that those natural laws cannot be broken but rather must be followed according to the universal laws of evolutions. Mankind, due to practice of surgery and medication, has broken many of these laws and has disrupted much of the evolutionary process it had. At first when medications and surgeries were being performed it was aiding mankind's evolution to some extent, giving them longer lives so that they could fulfill more of their karmas in one lifetime. And that was good; but now the cellular membranes in the genetic factors of mankind are being disrupted and you are actually changing the genetic factors in man's body due to medications and surgery that is taking place daily to the point that it is disrupting the evolutionary process of man.

This is why the foundation must reach a point in which it can aid man's growth, aid man's healing through a nonmedication and non-surgical means, through working with certain vibrations and sounds, working with machinery that can change and alter the vibrational patterns of the aura and the chakras. Working within the system itself as food and water and color and sound to bring about balance within mankind without having to take on surgical or medication procedures. It is a long road, but again I tell you, take it day by day, breath by breath, moment by moment, and you shall succeed. Let not doubt enter into your minds, only success should be there, for we have invisioned success for you and success is meant to be. Climb up the road as it is laid out for you now and the people shall flock to you that should help. They are there and they are waiting only waiting to hear that this foundation is here as a banner upon which they too can fly their colors. They look for a roof upon which to come underneath collectively to serve and to work. And through the protection of the foundation they shall find ways of manifesting that which is needed to change and alter the healing procedures of man today.

Upon an individual level each of you have a service to fulfill within the organization. John Fetzer is the driving force - the motivation upon which the foundation is to be laid. And even at his passing his energies shall remain with you and he shall begin even from the other side to filter stronger and stronger energies through to you to keep this foundation going strong and going pure in its motives. His energies at this time are pulling as a magnet those entities needed from the other side as well as from this side to get this foundation off the ground and manifesting properly in balance.

Through Chuck's ingenuity and ability to communicate with people on a one-to-one level and to draw out from them the knowledge that they have to share and to break down those barriers of fear we have put him into the position that he is in. For he is to go out and communicate with all souls that have any interest at all in helping mankind at this level as we speak, to help draw out of them the knowledge they have hidden within them that they fear to manifest. It will be through his drawing out, his energies of knowledge and of love, that will draw them to the foundation and bring about the knowledge necessary to manifest the healings that we seek to manifest.

for man. It will be through his healing energy as well that many of the devices that will be laid down will be worked out and tested. It will be his energies that will help with the understanding of errors in the machinery for he is sensitive within and has an understanding of the flow of force. He may not understand the mechanism that some present to him but when he looks at a design he will know inwardly whether the flow is properly balanced or not and whether it truly can manifest the healing that they claim. It will be through his ideas inwardly, and the changes that manifest in the machinery that will truly bring about a mechanism of healing.

With Mike Gergely it will be one of helping the financial status to remain a whole, balanced, proportion so that all the gears within the foundation are working and no one gear becomes stuck because of lack of funds or lack of interest or lack of balance. It will not be from just a financial standpoint that he will play a role. His role too will be as overseer and balancer of all the different departments of energies - just as Chuck will be working with this as well -- Mike and Chuck's energies together will keep the gears in flow. It will be through this overseeing and this balancing of this energy that the foundation will maintain its growth and never will become stagnate in its awareness and service. Also it will be Mike's duties to communicate to many on the outside levels that do not have an understanding of the foundation -- what it is -- the foundation is about and tries, as in public relations, to bring about an understanding of those who wish an understanding of what the foundation is. Through educational purposes, he will reach out and educate mankind as to its purposes as well as to its goals of helping man to understand himself and heal himself. It will be through his ideas that much of this will be accomplished.

For Margaret, her energies will be one that will draw unto this foundation many other like souls who are medically inclined and yet spiritually aware as well. It will be her energy that will give validity to much of the foundation's work in the beginning days. And it will be through her practice, that much of the techniques that are discussed and developed within the foundation shall first be tried and proven to be true. In a sense her office will become the first research lab for the foundation and it will be through the research that she does within her own practice that much of the understanding of how to go about manifesting these types of healings will come about in the foundation.

There is a doctor, also, who will be coming from the East, who will be bringing great knowledge as well, and he will bring about a balancing energy between Margaret and himself that will illumine much of the medical industry's awareness to the foundation and eventually the foundation will play a major role in influencing the medical industry practice.

And yet there are others who will be coming into the foundation later on. There are those now whose energies collectively are working who will not be there for a long period of time. They are there to give aid and understanding as to what the foundation must do to get on its feet and once it is on its feet their energies will not be necessary and they will withdraw. And that is fine because their purpose will have been served. But then past that point greater souls shall come, greater souls are now being trained and educated throughout the world, who will be drawn to this point and this time and this foundation to be of service to humanity and to give aid to humanity in this way.

I now wish to go around to each one of you and give you a blessing that will help you to succeed in this foundation. It is a spark of light that is already within you. I only wish to help ignite it a little more. And now I will leave so that yet others may come.

Greetings, It is of great joy that I come to you this day to share with you. I come more to present my own energy of healing unto you and to work with you on different levels. As I speak to you now, I reach out onto you and touch each one of you on all different levels to manifest an awakening within of the desire to be of service. Several thousand years ago I manifested in a body. I did many healings at that time. I worked with this type of energy then, as I do now. I learned my healing through Christ within. The Lord Jesus had not yet manifested physically as Jesus' embodiment, but I knew him within as my teacher and he taught me well the healing light, the healing principles. I used them well as a healer of truth, and I seek now to work through the foundation to help each one of you to find that healing flow of force so that you may begin to work with that type of energy. You will not go on and become great healers, as such, laying on of hands or projection of energies to heal people. But rather I want you to become sensitive to that healing energy within, to that healing flow, so as you talk with different people about ideas and designs of machinery and its supplements that can be developed to help mankind in this healing, you will be able to tell by the flow of that healing force within you the proper steps to take to accomplish the goal that you have in mind at that time. When the flow is positive and strong, you will know that that which you are working on is proper and will be successful. When the flow is weak you will know that you are going down a path that will bring no success and that it is only wasting time. For there are going to be many that come to you, but there will be few that truly have the ideas that you need to listen to.

There will be many that will come to you, that will share with you, and tell you the things they have in their hearts and in their minds that they want to see come about through this foundation, the different types of instruments, the different types of supplements, the different types of programs, of clinics and so on. But only few of those that come will truly have successful ideas. Ideas that can reach out and manifest the types of healings for man that we seek.

So I touch you at this time, helping you to begin to develop what's within, that healing flow of force. Slowly you will become aware of it, it is a gradual growth, it is not instantaneous. Slowly you will become aware of it, from time to time you will feel it flow through your body, as it heals you individually. And at times you will feel it flow through your body as you are communicating with others indicating to you the truth that they are sharing with you and whether or not it can be of benefit. We give you this gift so that the foundation will not be side stepped in its growth and its pattern of development. For many a foundation such as this has been developed but many a foundation has been side stepped, has fallen apart, because of a lack of understanding of this flow of energy. And because of that, they have reached a dead end and could go no further in their development of service to mankind. So we give you this gift, we touch your hearts, and ignite this awareness so that the foundation may live and may prosper in its true purpose of service.

I will begin to work with three individuals here very strongly to help manifest a greater healing flow of force because they themselves could become healers in time. But they first must go through much training both ^{on} the inner and outer levels and become aware and sensitive to the Karmas of man and realize they cannot touch those karmas in the healing processes, but rather must work with them. We will too will help you become aware of that. Over a period of time this healing energy will manifest and you will begin to do individual healings when you are drawn to do so. Do not go forth to heal everyone that comes to you. You will know from within as the flow develops those that you might be able to help in some way. You may be only able to give them a word, an idea, an understanding or you may be able to give them a true healing. We will make you sensitive and help you to understand that at that time.

I worked with Margaret at a time in Egypt so many years ago. We worked as healers in a temple there. I was Pharaoh and Priest King at that time and she was my sister-in-law. She was a priestess of the temple and a great healer at that time as she is now. She is one that I will touch and begin to work with this healing energy. Cleora is yet another whom I shall raise this healing energy within. We worked within the land of Greece and I was your father and I was your teacher, and yet again in Egypt you were a disciple of mine whom I healed and later taught to heal and I shall reach out again onto you to share with you the healing principles.

My name is Zoser and I work with you daily now. I work with few upon this planet, for few do understand me for my energies that I project. I leave you now in peace and love to ponder that which we have given you. Seek and strive to understand and go forth upon this land and share with those who seek to understand these principles of growth, who seek to understand the knowledge you have to share. Become one in service, become one in purpose, become one in love and you shall succeed. Our love is with you, our light is with you, and our prayers are with you too. Until the next time, my brethern, peace be unto you and forever more so let it be, so let it be, so let it be!!!
